on Form S-4: 333-194698

The following is the transcript of a television commercial of Comcast:

Voiceover: How do you make life online better for more people?

You start by extending Net Neutrality Protection to more Americans.

You make the network faster, more secure and more reliable.

You make low-cost Internet access available to more low-income families at home.

Life online can be better for a lot more people.

That's what we're committed to do. Together.

Comcast and Time Warner Cable.
Together is better for more people.

The following is the text that appeared on-screen during the above television commercial:
